Gina Moore made an announcement that she brought a couple of Sharon Lederer's sweatshirts (VCSC logos) to the meeting to distribute. Gina went on to say that Sharon's memorial was well attended by the club. The memorial was beautiful and uplifting.

Kurt introduced Steve Conway to present his Corvette story: (1967) After graduation purchased a 57' Chevy Straight Axel. Steve tricked it out. Drove around with all his buddies who owned Corvettes. Steve really wanted a Corvette so one of his buddies traded him his Corvette for the '57 Chevy. Exchanged pink slips. That's how he got his first Corvette.

Joke of the Day: Mike Dixon via Melissa Cervelli
